

Time Commitment Guidelines for Council and Committee meetings

In accordance with the College's by-laws and governance policies, all Council and Committee members are required to attend Council and Committee meetings. All meetings are scheduled in advance, with compensation in the form of per diems for meeting preparation and attendance. (See Schedule 1 at end of this document.)

In addition to attendance at meetings, Council and Committee members are required to prepare for each meeting by reviewing a meeting package and any other related materials that are provided in advance of the meeting. Adequate preparation is critical to allow members to participate and contribute fully to discussions and to develop informed opinions in rendering decisions.

In addition, Council members serve on panels for the Discipline, Fitness to Practise, Registration, Quality Assurance (QAC) and Inquiries Complaints and Reports (ICRC) Committees. These panels require preparation, attendance at a panel meeting and, in some cases, writing or review of written decisions (Registration, ICRC and QAC).

The following time commitment guidelines set out the expectations of College Council and committee members:

- All Council members are required to attend Council meetings. Pursuant to the College's by-laws a Council member may be disqualified, if the member fails, without reasonable cause to attend two (2) meetings of the Council in any twelve-month period. All professional members are required to be off call.
- All Council members are required to attend training days organized by the College. All professional members are required to be off call.
- All Committee members are expected to attend Committee meetings. All professional members are encouraged to be off call.
- All Committee Chairs are required to attend Committee meetings. Committee Chairs, who are professional members, are required to be off call.
- All panel members are required to attend panel meetings. All professional members are required to be off call.
- All panel Chairs are required to attend panel meetings. Panel Chairs, who are professional members, are required to be off call.
